A son of the late General Garibaldi is trying to raise a legion in Rome and Naples to aid Arabi Pasha in Egypt. The call is being enthusiastically responded to, and large numbers of volunteers are forming under the leadership of the son of Italy's liberator.

THE whole machinery of the state government of Kentucky is now upon a tax collection of about $2,300,000 a year, and yet in addition to this, by the oppressive system of the Federal taxation in Kentucky, the people of this state upon tobacco and whisky pay to the Federal government, each year, the sum of over $8,000,000.

THE city authorities having charge of the drainage of the city, ought to give their attention to the gutters on Second street in the Fifth ward. They are so filled up by washings from the street, that in heavy rains the side walks are overrun and a deposit of mud left to annoy pedestrians. This is a matter requiring immediate attention.

A Silver Mine in Kentucky.

A Somerset dispatch says there is much excitement in Wayne county about the alleged discovery of the Swift Silver Mine, near the mouth of Wolfe Creek, in that county. It is said that it was discovered by a woman of the neighborhood, who, in passing along a narrow pathway along the cliff, stepped upon a rock, which gave way, and exposed an entrance to an apparent cave, which had been walled up and covered. The mine is said to be very rich, and is believed to be the original Swift Mine.

Something to Boast of.

It is very gratifying to the editors of this paper to speak praise of Myers & Shorb's Big United States Circus, Museum and Menagerie, which has been delighting the citizens of Toronto for the past two days. We never saw a cleaner, better arranged Menagerie of rare wild animals than that of the Big U. S. The Circus was an orderly high-toned affair. The bare-back riding was superb, the gymnastic feats superior to any we ever witnessed, the leaping particularly, excelled that of the great Barnum and Forepaugh shows. The programme, although long, was rushed through. No tedious waiting for horses or performers. The show worked like a piece of perfect machinery. The men were remarkably orderly and our citizens are loud in their praises of this really good show.—Toronto Daily Mail.

The Big United States Circus, Museum and Menagerie, will exhibit in Maysville on Saturday, August the 5th, giving two performances on that day.

ALL the trains on the Kentucky Central will run to-morrow as usual. The early train will leave on time—5:45 in the morning.
